

Best In Futurity # 105 – Edale’s Odyssey

Lovely female with easy ground covering gait. She had my full attention the minute she entered the ring. Good temperament. Good front and rear. Nice dark eye and full dentition. Level topline gently sloping in the croup. Correct ribbing, sound coming and going. Very pretty head. Retained her beautiful movement from the class to the final. I was very pleased to award her Best In Futurity.

Reserve Futurity Female # 106 – Ch. Chilco’s Eclipse of Sunflower

Black and tan female. Nice temperament. Full dentition. Good front and rear. Slightly lifting in front. Nice movement. A little steep in croup.

Best Opposite In Futurity # 103 – Edale’s Rock Star K. Brook

Very attractive dark colored sable boy with ground covering gait. Good head with dark eye and full dentition. Nice temperament, sound coming and going. Lovely croup, good shoulder placement. Could use a little more spring of rib and width of chest, which will come with age. I was pleased to award him Best of Opposite in Futurity.

Reserve Futurity Male # 101 – Edale’s Jake

Another very attractive black and tan boy. Beautiful head with full dentition. Good temperament. Sound coming and going, level topline gently sloping into the croup. Good front and rear. Would like to see a little more length of croup. Pushed hard for the winner.

Best in Maturity # 201 – Windvane’s Macho-Man Bigsky

Very handsome dark black and tan male who commanded attention. Beautiful masculine head with dark eye and full dentition. Sound temperament. Correct front and rear with ground covering gait. Good tight feet. Nice length and spring of ribbing. Correct coming and going. I was pleased to award him Best In Maturity.

Best Opposite In Maturity # 202 – Nobler’s XXX Ecstasy

Lighter black and tan female who I first thought had questionable temperament, but on further examination was sound. She showed well in her class and covered the ground well. Was sound coming and going. Nice head with full dentition. Nice eye, level topline sloping into the croup. However, in the final her heart just wasn’t in it.

Reserve Maturity Female # 203 – Finelynes JJ

Rich black and tan female. Nice temperament. Pretty head with dark eye and full dentition. Good front and rear, nice sidegait. Could use a little more length of croup. A little close going away. Good ribbing and back gently sloping into the croup.
